

Spring 2024: Parent/Student

MEETING SCHEDULE

This schedule was updated on 04/30/24. You can also visit www.musiciansabroad.com for schedule updates.

In general, you should plan to attend the meeting nearest your home. If you can't make the meeting nearest your home, In general, plan to attend the meeting nearest your home. If you can't make that meeting, you may attend any other meeting that fits your schedule. We encourage students and parents to take advantage of the earliest meeting date possible. Meetings will last approximately one hour. During the meeting you will get all of the details regarding the tour from the music directors and local staff.

Dear Student Musician!

We are incredibly excited to preliminarily inform you of your nomination to the North Texas Musicians Abroad program through your school music program. This exciting 16-day, international performance tour will take place in the summer of 2025.

Personal invitation mailings have been sent out which contain a lot of exciting and helpful information about this opportunity. Part of the next steps involve attending a meeting in your area to find out more information and to ask questions about this program.

Due to unforeseen delays in mailing and for your personal planning purposes, this letter serves to inform you of two meetings coming soon nearer to your home. Your invitation packet will include a full meeting schedule, any of which you may attend. This info is just a notice so that you have time to make a decision on when and where you may attend.
